FAQS ON THE INFORMATION FOR TRADE IN KENYA PORTAL

What is Information for Trade in Kenya Portal?

It is an on-line platform which provides a comprehensive, single-point access to up-to-date trade related information mainly step-by-step guides to imports, exports and transit procedures

What is the role of Information for Trade in Kenya Portal?

- Provide traders with all access to trade-related regulatory information
- Provide traders with the legal requirements they are supposed to meet when importing or exporting respective goods
- Provide traders with information on duties, fees and exemptions that are applicable to their commodities.
- Provide traders with how long it will take to complete the respective procedure
- Provide institutions involved in regulating trade with a tool at their disposal for providing up to date information on administrative formalities
- Enable decision makers to analyse the complexity of a procedure as it is experienced by the trader and hence detect simplification opportunities

How will the Information for Trade in Kenya Portal work? The Portal will be web based and available online through the following link www.infotradekenya.go.ke.

Who are the stakeholders of the Information for Trade in Kenya Portal?

- Traders (First Time and Regular)
- Local, National and Regional Governments
- Partner Government Agencies
- Umbrella bodies of various organization
- Prospective Investors
- Any other interested parties

What are the expected benefits of Information for Trade in Kenya to the National economy?

- Enhance transparency and accountability
- Reduce time traders of all levels and sizes have been spending to get proper documentation,
- Give the Traders up to date information on administrative formalities on international trade
- Promotes public awareness of rules and procedures and stimulates public-private dialogue thereon
- Trigger simplification of the procedures by the various players